

Moose Hunting Gear Recommendations

Clothing Tops

- 1-3 Light weight sweat wick away t-shirts
- 1-(Optional) Base layer top
- 1-Medium layer top/hunting shirt (I recommend with a hood, either full or quarter zip, but whatever works for you)
- 1-Warm down coat (filled with waterproof down or synthetic insulation)
- 1-Goretex jacket (large enough to fit over your down coat)
- 1-Helly Hansen Impertech waterproof jacket or similar (large enough to fit over your down coat)
- 1-(Optional) Insulating/hunting vest
- 1-Insulated Gore-Tex or rubber gloves
- 1-3 (Optional) Pair of glove liners
- 1-Ball cap and warm beanie
- 1-(Optional) Neck gaiter

Clothing Bottoms

- 1-3-Sweat wick away underwear (or whatever works for you)
- 1-Base layer bottoms (I recommend ones with either zipper or velcro sides so you can remove without taking boots off)
- 1-Softshell hunting pant
- 1-Goretex hunting pant
- 1-Helly Hansen Impertech waterproof pant
- 5+-Wool hunting socks
- 1-Well broke in hunting boots
- 1-Boot gaiters
- 1-Rubber boots (optional)

Gear

- 1-Backpack, external or internal frame but large enough to fit all clothing and gear items from this list
- 1-Backpack waterproof cover
- 15+/-deg waterproof Down/Synthetic Lightweight Sleeping bag
- 1-Inflatable sleeping pad
- 1-(Optional) Gore-Tex bivy sack for sleeping bag
- 1-(Optional) Small pillow case for stuffing jackets, extra clothes, etc. inside to make a pillow when you sleep or you can use the compressible stuff sack listed below
- 1-Water resistant/proof compressible stuff sack to fit all sleeping items in or bivy sack will suffice in its place
- 1-Sunglasses with case
- 1-Cup, lightweight and large enough for coffee, oatmeal, ramen noodles, etc.
- 1-Spoon, sturdy and long enough to reach the bottom of mountain house/peak refuel meals
- 1-Nalgene water bottle 1000ml

(Continued)

- 2-Collapsible hiking/trekking poles
- 1-Knife and sharpener or outdoor edge knife with replaceable blades and/or leatherman
- 1-Binoculars
- 1-(Optional) Glassing pad or stadium style fold up chair (crazy creek chair or similar)
- 1-Small medical kit (blisters, capstick, personal medications, etc.)
- 1-Hygiene kit (personal toiletries, t-brush, t-paste, etc.)
- 1-(Optional) Small camp style towel
- 1-Bright Headlamp with extra batteries, solar charger and/or power bank
- 1-Rifle+sling with 40rds
- 1-Hard sided rifle travel case with lock(s)
- 1-2-Duffle bags/suitcase, for storing none hunting items in that are not coming on the hunt
- 1-(Optional) Book for weather days
- 1-Mosquito head net
- 1-Fire starter Lighter
- 1-Phone with charger/cables, recommend a hunting app with preloaded maps for GPS tracking while not on cell service
- 1-(Optional) Power bank, solar style charger, or combination of both to recharge battery items at camp
- 1-Camp shoes, i.e. crocks or similar
- 1-Waterproof compressible stuff sack, large enough to store all clothing you're not wearing when hunting
- 1-Either Barneys sourdough slippers, Barneys Glacier socks, Hodgman Game Wader rubber hip waders, or something similar for stream crossings

**If you need any recommendations or have any questions on the gear listed above, please let us know"*

Greg Stewart

970-812-6731

Daniel Wright

858-603-0900

ultimatealaskan@gmail.com

<https://www.ultimatealaskanadventure.com>

